Subject: draft press release - Ramazzini

Here is my first shot at a draft press release on Ramazzini. I wrote it assuming we would go with Option 2 from Lynn's presentation. It sounded like that's the direction Kevin was headed in our meeting with him last week (though I understand that was a very quick conversation and not a final decision). We can always change the details as needed if a different decision is made.

I think this is probably too long, but I'm not sure what to cut. This is probably the most difficult press release I've had to write so far, so any feedback you have would be greatly appreciated.
